Free Spyware and Pop-Up Blocking Software for US Military Personnel Stationed overseas in IRAQ and Afghanistan

SuperAdBlocker.com wishes our troops a happy holiday season by providing free copies of Super Ad Blocker, its Pop-Up and Spyware blocking product.

EUGENE, OR (Dec 14, 2004) – SuperAdBlocker.com, a Pacific Northwest developer of state-of-the-art ad-blocking solutions, is offering any US Military Personnel stationed overseas or stateside this holiday season a free, fully registered copy of its flagship product Super Ad Blocker.

Super Ad Blocker is an innovative product that protects users from Spyware, Adware, Trojans, Homepage Hi-Jackers, Pop-Ups, Pop-Unders and other forms of web-based annoyances and threats.

“We are grateful for the hard work and sacrifices that our troops are engaged in overseas and realize how difficult it is to be away from their families during the holiday season,” said Nick Skrepetos, founder of SuperAdBlocker.com. “By providing free copies of Super Ad Blocker, our troops using the Internet will have a more enjoyable experience while surfing and communicating with their loved ones.”

Super Ad Blocker is designed to block all annoying forms of Internet advertising including Pop-Ups, Pop-Unders, Flash, Rich Media, Desktop Messenger, and Spyware/Adware ads. Super Ad Blocker will also block over 300 of the most dangerous spyware/adware applications.

Military personnel may visit <http://www.SuperAdBlocker.com/troops> for complete instructions on retrieving their free copy. If you know someone who is in the military overseas, please let him or her know about this unique offer!

The product offers a fully functional 30-day free trial which the general public may download directly from www.superadblocker.com. Super Ad Blocker is not advertising supported and contains no spyware, adware or other harmful software.

Super Ad Blocker is priced at $29.95 for the general public and includes updates for one year. Super Ad Blocker is available for download from www.superadblocker.com. Super Ad Blocker supports Windows 98, 98SE, ME, 2000 and XP.
